- ✓ Generous vacation entitlement that increases with years of service
- ✓ Complimentary individual membership with available family add-on
- ✓ 5% employer-matching pension plan
- ✓ Great people and a great work environment

Are you the right fit?

- ✓ You understand and apply best practices in issues specifically relating to the Immigrant and Refugee population
- ✓ You have a proven ability to plan, promote, direct and evaluate high quality programming to children, youth and adults from Immigrant and Refugee populations
- ✓ You foster, establish, and maintain effective external partnerships with ease
- ✓ You excel in your communication and leadership skills

What else do you need?

- ✓ 3-5 years in a similar role
- ✓ Post-secondary degree/diploma in a Health/Social Services related field
- ✓ Knowledge of language training for newcomers
- ✓ Trauma/violence informed care training an asset
- ✓ Emergency First Aid and CPR Level C
- ✓ Clear Adult Abuse Registry Check
- ✓ Proficiency in use of computers for word processing, communicating via email, and reporting
- ✓ Valid Driver's License and access to a vehicle is preferred
- ✓ Management training and/or experience an asset
